GET FORTY CENTS A DAY.

Laborers on the Panama Canal Strike for Fifty Cents a Day.

PANAMA, Nov. 10.—A strike has taken place among the laborers on the Culebra section of the Panama canal. The men are paid only thirty-five to forty cents a day and find their own supplies. They demand an increase to fifty cents. This demand has been refused, and the canal authorities are engaging new men to fill the strikers' places. The men are making threats, and as a precaution the government has reinforced the Culebra police.

New York Bank Statement.

NEW YORK, Nov. 10.—The weekly bank statement shows the following changes: Reserve, decrease $1,034,235; loans, decrease $1,017,400; specie, decrease $75,500; legal tenders, decrease $2,182,800; deposits, decrease $3,023,700; circulation, decrease $310,200. WILL GORDON GET OUT

Strange Behavior of Lawyer W. E. Dom.

PAID A $200 ATTORNEY FEE

But Totally Neglects to Do Anything for His Client Who Still Languishes in Jail.

Within a few days J. G. Waters will apply for a writ of habeas corpus for the release of George Gordon, the "gold-brick man" from the county jail. And thereby hangs a chain of evidence that may result in trouble to a well known Topeka lawyer.

Mrs. Mamie Frazier of 122 West Sixth street, is a sister of Gordon who came here two weeks ago from Chicago to try to get her brother out of trouble. She tells a story of unfair treatment at the hands of Lawyer W. E. Dom which she substantiates by telegrams and receipts. To a JOURNAL reporter Mrs. Frazier said today:

"When my brother was first arrested Mr. Dom went down to the jail and got himself retained as the lawyer in the case. My brother's bond was fixed at $1,000, and Dom telegraphed home to us to try to raise the amount. We found we couldn't raise that much, and the next time he telegraphed that the bond had been reduced to $350, although I understand it was not, and then followed a telegram saying if we would remit $200 right away he would have my brother 'on the streets in twenty-four hours.' I sent a friend of ours, Thomas McGraw by name, to Topeka with the $200. He didn't want to pay Dom until George (Gordon) was released; but Dom said he couldn't get him out till the next day, and as Mr. McGraw had to hurry home that day, he paid the money and took a receipt, and here it is."

Mrs. Frazier displayed the following receipt:

$200. OCT. 2, 1894.

RECEIVED FROM THOMAS MCGRAW, TWO HUNDRED DOLLARS, IN

ADM. GORDON CASE.

W. E. DOM.

Mrs. Frazier continued: "We waited several weeks and my brother was not released, and then I determined to come to Topeka, although it was a great inconvenience to me. I hunted up Dom but found he was out of town. He did not return for several days. I have found out since that he took the $200, went to Kansas City and spent it. When he got back I asked him to go and see my brother and get him out. He promised to do so, but he didn't. I asked him several times afterwards and he always promised to but never did. For the past two weeks I have done nothing but wait from the house here to the jail, then to Dom's office and back again. Although Dom was paid the money over a month ago with the understanding he was to get my brother out the next day, he hasn't been near my brother since."

"Dom's partner, Mr. Atchison, was paid $25 additional to get George out on a writ of habeas corpus, but I did not feel so badly towards him because I really think he did the best he knew how."

"After I found it was no use trying to get Dom or Atchison to do anything I took the case to J. G. Waters. He will try to get my brother out and I have no doubt he will be successful. I don't know whether there is any way of getting Dom's $200 back or not. That rests entirely with Mr. Waters."

Mr. Dom does not deny to a JOURNAL reporter that he took the money and disposed of it, but says that this morning he made a settlement in the case with Gordon through Mr. Waters that is satisfactory to both. It is understood that Dom is to pay Mr. Waters' attorney fee.

George Gordon was seen by a JOURNAL reporter at the county jail this afternoon in the presence of Mr. Dom. Gordon did not wish under the circumstances to talk about the matter if it had been settled to the satisfaction of Mr. Waters. He did not deny the statements and said he had no doubt that his sister and Mr. Waters told the truth and nothing but the truth.

It is stated today that Dom based his agreement to get Gordon out of jail on the promise of County Attorney Safford to dismiss the case. This agreement is said to have been made because it was impossible to secure a conviction without the identical "gold brick" used by Gordon. Later, County Attorney Safford sent a note to Gordon's sister in which he said the state had additional evidence that insured Gordon's conviction and made release at this time impossible. It is understood that County Attorney Safford claims to have the real "gold brick," holding it as evidence.

WILL CARRY THE SCARS.

Tom Reed Says Business Will Show Effects of Democratic Rule.

PORTLAND, Me., Nov. 10.—Thomas B. Reed says of the election:

"The result assures the country the peace it so much requires. The rest of the country seems to have been moved by the same cause that moved the eastern states. Democrats everywhere, either by silence or by action, seem to have helped to partially save the union from the follies of inexperienced and injudicious men."

"I say partially, for we shall be fortunate indeed if business does not carry the scars of the last eighteen months a very considerable time. The country is much to be congratulated, especially if we Republicans make a judicious use of the victory."

Charles K. Holliday, who was a candidate on the Democratic ticket for clerk of the district court, says he ran ahead of the rest of the Democratic ticket. His total vote in the county was 634.

Stand From Under!

Croaking competition has utterly failed to stem the tide of popular approval that has carried the Golden Eagle's Great Free Wool Sale on to an unparalleled success. The people are with us because this sale is in the interests of the people. Whether the next Congress be Republican or Democratic does not alter the fact that wool is free January 1, and prices must come down in consequence. First to appreciate that fact, the Golden Eagle has hewed to that line first and last and never sought to evade it. These are facts—plain, palpable, hard-hitting facts—that have hurt prehistoric competition, but have plainly pleased the people. The Golden Eagle repeats and stands ready to prove its assertions, that it is selling Better Clothing, and selling it for less money than any house in the city—the job-lot dealers or factory profit extortionists not barred.

President Cleveland Responsible for the Republican Victory.

NEW YORK, Nov. 10.—Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, comments thus on Tuesday's avalanche:

"The election results signify that the people are less partisan than citizens. They are weaning themselves from passive partisanship and utilizing their franchise to punish those who criminally violate the interests of the masses. In this fact lies the hope for a better future. Generally considered, the elections have shown that the masses hold President Cleveland and his administration responable for the unsettled condition of business during the last winter. The precipitation of the industrial crisis of 1893, and the calling out of troops at Chicago in violation of the constitutional rights and guarantees are some of the causes which contributed to the political avalanche."

PARKHURST IS MODEST.

Victory for Good Government Felt All Over the Country.

NEW YORK, Nov. 10.—"This victory," said Dr. Parkhurst today, "has touched me, I may say, without bombast or affectation, most tenderly. It has made itself felt all over the United States, and men interested in good government in other cities are saying that if New York can get reform their cities can get it also. A telegram from Chicago says the victory is not only local but national. And I feel now that this is only the beginning of the work. The great number of ballots cast for Tammany shows that there is a broad leavening of ignorance in the city, and there never was so large a ground of education in New York as there is now. The city vigilance league is aroused to more enthusiasm now even than it has been before, and all the young men feel as I do, that the work has only begun."

"We propose to have the machinery of the league always oiled and ready and in it there will be no politics. We are not in this movement for office, and I know that had I come in and said I would be mayor my influence would have been lost."
